

Kooks, No Longer

I'm must say that I worry for
You can't live like this no more
I'm must say that I worry for you

I'm must say that I worry for Our love in this cold war
I'm must say that I worry for you

Took me by suprise
that I just didn't see
She had a dark past,
of broken hearts and she wanted love
But in the darkest times she'll be honest with lies Put her word in fancy dress and we'll keep up this disguise

No longer, its not getting stonger, no longer for me

I'm must say that I worry for
You can't live like this no more
I'm must say that I worry for you
But you don't wanna think no more Passed out on your bedroom floor
I'm must say that I worry for you

Took me by suprise
that I once made a key to open her dark heart he broke apart what was once in love But its clear now to see,
that man he was me,
so I go far far away from here
don't you follow me

No longer were not getting stonger, no longer for me

I'm must say that I worry for
You can't live like this no more
I'm must say that I worry for you
I'm must say that I worry for
Our love in this cold war
I'm must say that I worry for you

I worry for you
I worry for you
I worry for you
I worry for you

I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
I'm just saying that I worry for
