

Korn, Dead Bodies Everywhere

Come on, step inside, and you will realize.
Tell me what you need, tell me what to be.
What's your vision?
You'll see, what do you expect of me?
I cant live that lie.

Hey!
I'm seeing my worth
I'm fucked at dealing,
With your life
Dead bodies everywhere.
You!
Really want me to be a good son. Why?
You make me feel like no one.

Let me strip the plain, let me not give in.
Free me of your life, inside my heart dies.
Your dreams never achieved, don't lay that shit on me.
Let me live my... life.

Hey!
I'm seeing my worth
I'm fucked at dealing,
with your life
dead bodies everywhere.

You!
Really want me to be a good son. Why?
You make me feel like no one.

You want me to be, something I can never ever be!

I'm seeing my worth
I'm fucked at dealing,
with your life
dead bodies everywhere.

You!
Really want me to be a good son. Why?
You make me feel like no one.

Dead bodies everywhere!
