

Korn, Haze

Walking alone inside my world
Thinking I'm doing the right thing
Destroying all that appears before me
It was all done in vain

Wanna get through fire
Wanna get through pain
Wanna get with violence
Wanna get with shame

Digging this place to call my own
Raping my body without a face
Tortured my soul as black as pitch
And I have no life to waste

Wanna get through fire
Wanna get through pain
Wanna get with violence
Wanna get with shame

(whispered section)
I worshiped you
Do anything
So lost and helpless
I played your game
I worshiped you
Do anything
So lost and helpless
I PLAYED YOUR GAME!

Wanna get through fire
Wanna get through pain
Wanna get with violence
Wanna get with shame
