

Korzus, Respect

You stick your finger in my face
And tell me what I must do
Why dont you respect me?
Your truth is not mine

Im tired of always hearing
Time is passing and you never learn Im looking in your eyes
and wont see your soul burn

Respect
Respect my time
Respect my life
Respect your mind
Respect

When you judge yourself
Look at your life
Everyone knows
that youre weak
My power is my mind
Your sins were born in your soul
Imposing rules to everyone
Your physical force is bullshit I Know nom!

Respect
Respect my time
Respect my life
Respect your mind
Respect
