

Kosheen, Like A Book

I see you looking my direction
I repayed a compliment
Something different in your eyes
You always seemed so confident back there

Though there's been a lot of change
Seems to best, and stayed the same
I remember you were my fiend before you changed
And ran away from me

(Believe me)

Believe me
If I could
Baby, I would
You know it
Was all gone
If I could
Maybe now
Give you my word
You know me
You read me like a book

I offer you the re-insurance
Thorn terms are relevant
Can you see the darken circles 'round my eyes
Penetrate in your soul?

Let's take back to better days
When everything was possible
Oh, this dirty world always...
My heavy heart is longing for you

(Believe me)

Believe me
If I could
Baby, I would
You know it
Was all gone
If I could
Maybe now
Give you my word
You know me
You read me like a book
