

KOVALCZYK, DREAM

I had a strange dream last night
It was cold and raining outside
Someone was following me in darkness
There was no place to hide

Who is following me
What does he want from me
Maybe he wants to hurt me

It was only him and me
My heart was beating fast
I didn't know what's gonna happen
If I look in his eyes

Who is following me
What does he want from me
Maybe he wants to hurt me

I couldn't run any further
I wanted to surrender
Suddenly someone screamed to me
Wake up it's just a dream
