

Krace, Paranoid

And how I love it when you say you're gonna smile
And how I love it when you say you're gonna try
And how I love it when you say we're gonna fly
You and me forever, right?

And how I love it when you say I'm very strong
And how I love it when you say I'm never wrong
And how I love it when you say it must go on
You and me forever, right?

I'm so in love I'm paranoid
I need a girlfriend to unwind
I'm so in love I'm paranoid
You and me forever, right?

And how I hate it when you say you're gonna fly
And how I hate it when you say you wanna die
And how I hate it when you say you're gonna cry
You and me forever, right?

And how I hate it when you tell me what I need
And how I hate it when you tell me what to be
And how I hate it when you tell me when to bleed
You and me forever, right?

I'm so in love I'm paranoid
I need a girlfriend to unwind
I'm so in love I'm paranoid
You and me forever, right?

I'm so in love I'm paranoid
I need a girlfriend to unwind
I'm so in love I'm paranoid
You and me forever, right?

And when hallucination finally strucks my mind
She's just a bad relation millions of the kind
I'm a beast I'm a monster picking flowers in a line
She's just someone to destroy

I'm so in love I'm paranoid
I need a girlfriend to unwind
I'm so in love I'm paranoid
You and me forever, right?

I'm so in love I'm paranoid
I need a girlfriend to unwind
I'm so in love I'm paranoid
You and me forever, right?
You and me forever, right?
You and me forever, right?
You and me forever, right?
