

Kreator, Betrayer

This is a song which
I use to describe what I feel
About people like you
No sense for humanity, no idea about life
This premise has been proved

You used my trust to satisfy your brainless lust
Your word isn't worth
More than puke in the dust
Betrayer!
Betrayer!

Misleader, you twisted things to satisfy
Deceiver, this greedy lust you can't deny
Betrayer!
Betrayer!

How could I be so naive
To believe all the lies
You so easily told
I think I've learned my lesson too late
The story took time to unfold
Now I see your true face
Behind your mask, a cheat, a fake
Your word isn't worth more than puke in the dust
Betrayer!
Betrayer!

Ignorant twisted mind,
Maybe it would help
To think before you speak from time to time
Pretend to be a friend of mine
But you would sell your mother if you could
For less than a dime
Intelligence lost,
Brain deceased,
So you will loose,
Fall to your knees,
Guys like you I cannot stand
Maybe I must speak another language
Before you understand

Misleader, you twisted things to satisfy
Deceiver, this greedy lust you can't deny
Betrayer!
Betrayer!
