&lt;/lyrics&gt;
Go on and try the
Infinite combinations, see which one you like
I'm not gonna wait for the fate
That god gives me, I clasp my hands together

Do it, do it, do it
I'm gonna do it, in the spring and in the summer
Come on everybody, let's go
In the autumn and in the winter
Lower the tension
What are you gonna do?

For starters, set off to a nearby place

I laugh, and I cry
But it's obvious that I'm having fun
Everyday, life is a journey
I'm doing a good job with it, surely it's fanatical
To be so set on looking only ahead
I can't stop my excitement, the future
But it's under my very nose
I straighten things up piece by piece, it's not too late
Day games and night games
Biological clocks competing together
Cry, if you want to cry, it's up to your own abilities
You should be able to change those tears into ones of happiness
Relating to others always tends to change a person
I'm gonna train myself at my very core
I'll start with the things I can do, steadily
One by one...

Go on and try the
Infinite combinations, see which one you like
The fate that god gives me
Gratitude and happiness

Go on and try the
Infinite combinations, see which one you like
I'm not gonna wait for the fate
That god gives me, I clasp my hands together

Do it, do it, do it
I'm gonna do it, in the spring and in the summer
Come on everybody, let's go
In the autumn and in the winter
Lower the tension
What are you gonna do?

Anyway, everything is piling up all at once

Open up the window
Have a little patience
If I can take aim, then I'll shoot the pinball
The initial impulse is to burst it open and let it fly everywhere
I've got the ability to deal with it, guided by my good sense of direction
That was yesterday, today I just can't get it
It's steady progress

But certainly, the distance to my target is growing shorter

It seems to be getting longer though
If I do it like this, it still is (a nationwide event)
I'm gonna be intent, 'till I arrive at my goal
I strain myself, and make an effort (a nationwide event)
Sometimes I slow down, and make a little joke
That's how it get through it (a nationwide event)
I can't be alone
I easily talking it over with my friends
(Let's go right now!)
