Krezip, Gentle

Dont you worry enough should be enough
I try to hear it but nothing works at all
So please be gentle but its better to leave me alone
Cause nothings working all I do is cry
I cry, cry, cry
Chorus
Sometimes it feels like it rains on me day and night
I cant make up my mind
Losing my head finding worries instead
Sometimes just nothing goes right
Sometimes just nothing feels right
Say it wont get out if I stay like this
All I can do is to just get up, fall down, get up
So please be gentle but its better to leave me alone
Cause nothings working all I do is cry
I cry, cry, cry
Chorus
Sometimes it feels like it rains on me day and night
cant make up my mind
Losing my head finding worries instead
Sometimes just nothing goes right
Sometimes just nothing feels right
Take your time and
Try to be aware
I want to hear it
But I feel so awfully small
Chorus
Sometimes it feels like it rains on me day and night
cant make up my mind
Losing my head finding worries instead
Sometimes just nothing goes right
Sometimes just nothing feels right
Now dont you worry
Enough is enough
