and as she's sitting there she's playing with her girlfriends she's playing with her dolls and tries to catch a butterfly, yeah

it was their mother she made them scream
but she needed the money if she wanted to survive so she had to be selfish she gave her kids away

gave her kids away
and as you're lying there the sheets you lie on are full of blood the cross you pray on but where's your god but there was no protection

but she needed the money if she wanted to survive
gave her kids away
