

Krezip, Rearrange

Rearrange, its too late
Just go on
I cant sleep, we wake up
And nothings wrong no more
Cant make up my mind
What do I find today, said today
Maybe Ill wake up
Cause this is not who I am
But please understand
How its like to be there
Where everythings going the way it should be
Then again, doesnt end
Ill go home
I cant sleep, I look up
And nothings wrong no more
Cant make up my mind
What do I find today, said today
Maybe Ill wake up
Cause this is not who I am
But please understand
How its like to be there
Where everythings going the way it should be
But dont you ask me
I wont answer anything at all
But please understand
How its like to be there
Where everythings going the way it should be
