

Krisiun, Crosses Toward Hell

Hear the dark symphony when the light becomes black under the blood's rain Satan always calls your name uncaread for your God inherit the evil's control this order always summoned you raise the black flag blood run out of your eyes plague's fever and death all disease are spreadin' out unleashed the demon's wrath slaves of the dying world the worms eat away their flesh blood blasts from the sky crosses toward hell

Rotten guts inside the body the mankind cry out in despair rotten world, atrocious from hell you get command, godless butcher you must be alive forever
