

Krisiun, Hunter of Souls

I came overtaking the boundaries of insanity killing and destroying all I can felling no love at all just leaving to spread tha black vengeance enjoying every kind of sorrow I live without regret no passion - no mercy

I'll fight 'till the end not afraid to die I'm the light of the antichrist my steel will purify the human race hidden in the shadows of dead I'n your untrue salvation

Hunter of souls son of the gods of hell raised by the storms I ride the immortal evil dogs of inferno run by my side symbols of the impure prophecy

Satan is sowning the seeds of destruction the mankind shall take all they deserve no chances to return black clouds send us the rain of blood human flesh dropped from the walls now they'll drink from the chalice of vindication

On the way of eternity you'll see the light fading out screams of torment possesesses you in fear living in your worst nightmare you belongs the deepest suffering give me your hand behold the master of whole evil now we'll take your soul
