

Krispies, (Blessed With) Nine Lives

Seven days, on the shore
We're alike, I love you more each day
Can't stop us now
Close the door, I see you're bored
Let you know, we're on the roll
But I'm hopin' you'd express your soul
I'm blessed with them nine lives
It's such a fine line
Between a truth and a lie
I don't mind, just don't lie
Days grow old, I can't ignore
You're the one, more and more, I know
Thinking 'bout it myself
Won't be long, when you come home
On the phone, don't know whom it's from
Secrets are about to unfold
I'm blessed with them nine lives...
