

Kristian Leontiou, Fall And I Will Catch You

She gets in again..at 4am
Crawls into another sleep
Dreams of days again remembers when all these feelings she could keep
Another moment all alown
She sings into her radio
The song is fading she tarts to cry
If only she knew were to go

Dont you cry please dont cry im your best freind
Dont be sad dont look back im here for you

So fall and i will catch you
So fall and i will catch you

Lets go out again and take a walk
I tell you what you mean to me
Your an angel at least to me
If you could see what i can see

Dont you cry please dont cry im your best freind

So fall and i will catch you
So fall and i will catch you

So fall and i will catch you
So fall and i will catch you

So fall and i will catch you
So fall and i will catch you
