

Kristian Leontiou, The Years Move On

Somehow the words just seem to pass you by
You never understand me
You build me up so you can knock me down
So far down they cannot find me
I've tried so hard
I've played my part
Console this heart
So the years move on
Ill never love the way I loved you
So the years move on
You'll never know the way I loved you
I hear you whisper when I'm all alone
Whose heart are you breaking now
You made me promises you could not keep
I find it hard to believe
I've tried so hard
I've played my part
Console this heart
So the years move on
Ill never love the way I loved you
So the years move on
You'll never know the way I loved you
Goodbye Goodbye
So the years move on
