

Kristine W., Save My Soul

who is gonna save me
tell me can you save me you alone will save me

nothing in the world can make change the way i feel for you nothing in the world can make me leave you dont you feel it to you have made me realize my love for you can make me whole you have made me realize that love alone can save my soul i was in a place of fire i was hypnotized living in my darkest hour i was paralyzed and now im back and feeling higher and you alone can say that you became a true reviver when you rescued

you have made me realize that love alone can save my soul ... yeah save my save my save my save my soul

i suffered from a burning fever but now im back to life i turned into my own deceiver and that i cant deny i thought that i was born to walk alone until i met you you are my one desire come on and take me higher cause

and you have made me realize my love for you can make me whole you have made me realize that love alone can save my soul

save my
save my
save my
you alone can save me

save my
save my

cause nothing in the world can make change the way i feel for you

save my save mysave mysave my soul save my soulsave my save mysave mysave my soul
