

Kristy Thirsk, If Only

(Thirsk/Wong)

i don't know if it's day or night lucid from a dream of fright counting all the helping hands and trying to understand if only this life would never end if only is often just pretend so i wish you a long, long love with your long, long life a long, long love with your long, long life haunted by the ghost of life holding onto yourself tight wondering if the world will stand and worried for every man
if only this life would never end
so i wish you a long, long love with your long, long life
we can live in harmony and light all religions, no more wars to fight no such things as bombs in flight if only, if only
if only this life would never end
so i wish you a long, long love with your long, long life a long, long love with your long, long, long life if only this life would never end
so i wish you a long, long love with your long, long life
a long, long love with your long, long life we can live in harmony if only
