

Kristy Thirsk, Run Away

(Rosse/Thirsk)

you don't know yourself you are living in someone else's world if you let go of yourself you are tripping as someone else in someone else's, someone else's world you run away from the sun, you run away, run away you run away from the sun, you run, run, run they don't know your hell they won't know what you never tell scared your heart will burn you have built a sunless world, it's your design, not someone else's mind
you run away from the sun, you run away, run away
you run away from the sun, you run, run, run
run, run, run, run, run
oh you don't face yourself
oh you don't face yourself now
you run away from the sun, you run away, run away
you run away from the sun, you run, run, run
