

Kristy Thirsk, Souvenir

(Thirsk)

maybe i lost out 'cause i ran too late to catch up with you do you have me crossed out on your list of things that you had to do?
meet a girl from far away and then never stay grounded find someone that you want to love but the metal gloves pound in she's just a souvenir
she's just a souvenir
you'd never stay, you'd never stay here you thought i was pretty and i guess that's all that you thought of me how did your real tears come when you're wiping mine but you're still relieved to leave a girl from far away like you've been a slave, hounded touch a heart with tender hands then those metal hands pound it
she's just a souvenir
she's just a souvenir
she's just a souvenir
she's just a souvenir
she's just a souvenir
she's just a souvenir
she's just a souvenir
you'd never stay, you'd never stay you'd never stay, you'd never stay right here
