

Krosfyah, It Feels Like

Party so nice don't feel like going home tonight
Nice company music so sweet we feeling right
All kinds of people come together black or white
Showing respect for one another through the night
West in-dians, misbehaving any, excuse for celebrating
Nothing can't touch the mood i'm feeling
I'm gonna have my fun again

Anytime i hearing, sweet soca pumping
Feels like, i'm home again
Watch the ladies work it, sexy ladies work it
Feels like, i'm home again
We don't plan on leaving, can't beat this feeling
Feels like, i'm home again
Look the sun is rising, as we count our blessings
Feels like, i'm home again

Party so nice don't feel like going home tonight
Nice company music so sweet we feeling right
All kinds of people come together black or white
Showing respect for one another through the night
West in-dians, misbehaving any, excuse for celebrating
Nothing can't touch the mood i'm feeling
I'm gonna have my fun again

Meeting new people that you thought you'd never know
No strings attached just jamming that's the way to go
Don't be surprise if all ah we inside a band
In every fete and on de road we jam as one
West in-dians, misbehaving every excuse for celebrating
Nothing can't touch the mood i'm feeling
Right now this feels like home again

Anytime i hearing, sweet soca pumping
Feels like, i'm home again
Watch the ladies work it, sexy ladies work it
Feels like, i'm home again
We don't plan on leaving, can't beat this feeling
Feels like, i'm home again
Look the sun is rising, as we count our blessings
Feels like, i'm home again
Some body just do what you want and, some body just, do what you want and
Somebody just, sweetness now, oh gosh

West in-dians misbehaving any excuse for celebrating
Nothing can't touch the mood i'm feeling
I'm gonna have a time again

Anytime i hearing, sweet soca pumping
Feels like, i'm home again
Watch the ladies work it, sexy ladies work it
Feels like, i'm home again
We don't plan on leaving, can't beat this feeling
Feels like, i'm home again
Look the sun is rising, as we count our blessings
Feels like, i'm home again

West in-dians misbehaving, any excuse for celebrating
Nothing can't touch the mood i'm feeling
I feel like i'm in love again.
West in-dians misbehaving, west in-dians celebrating
