KT Tunstall, Black And White

Under my feet Miles of nothingness Testing my senses

Strange as it seems Feels as if I've been Here before

It's beautiful So simple Like black and white

I said goodbye Waving with a smile As I left the planet

The message was short My radio was old As the universe

It's in the paper The picture In black and white

And when I look through The window It's black and white