

KT Tunstall, Hard Girls

Hey!
C'mon

When soft girls
Trying to be hard girls
You know that nothing changes
Just be yourself

Never got a lot of empathy
Wearing my insides here on the outside
Could've got a little temporary relief
Peeling the broadside, getting the thrill
But it was just a distraction
To keep me up when I wasn't awake

Well the soft girls
Trying to be hard girls
You know that nothing changes
Nothing changes
Just be yourself
Nothing changes
Just be yourself

Following the path that I should
Baby, legacy leaving was completely deceiving
And I'd never gotten where I wanted to be
I didn't notice it was all just a show
I understand the attraction
Of wearing lack all the time

Well the soft girls
Trying to be hard girls
You know that nothing changes
Nothing changes
'Cuz your hair's in your face
And all you good boys
Trying to be bad boys
You know that nothing changes (Nothing changes)
Just be yourself

Hey!
Turn it up!
Hey!
You can do it!
C'mon
Let's go!
