

KT Tunstall, Moment Of Madness

Lead me to bed
I'm easily led
I'm climbing the steps but
I'm wide awake
Now my eyes are closed
I have to suppose
It's got me surrendered
This moment of madness

It was a moment of madness

And my back was warm
From feeling the sun
And being at one with science
And now I have found
My hole in the ground
It's a tourist attraction
My moment of madness

It was a moment of madness

Giving myself away
In a moment of madness

It was a moment of madness
