

KT Tunstall, Silent Sea

I was happy in my harbour when you cut me loose
Floating on an ocean and confused
Winds are whipping waves up like skyscrapers
And the harder they hit me, the less I seem to bruise

And when I find the controls
I'll go where I like
I'll know where I want to be
But maybe for now
I'll stay right here
On a silent sea
On a silent sea

I was happy in my harbour when you cut me loose
Floating on an ocean and confused

And when I find the controls
I'll go where I like
I'll know where I want to be
But maybe for now
I'll stay right here
On a silent sea
On a silent sea

I'll stay right here
On a silent sea
On a silent sea

And when I find the controls
I'll go where I like
I'll know where I want to be
But maybe for now
I'll stay right here
On a silent sea
