

KT Tunstall, Throw Me A Rope

I want you between me and the feeling I get when I miss you
But everything here is telling me I should be fine
So why is it so above as below
That I'm missing you every time

I got used to you whispering things to me into the evening
We followed the sun and its colors and left this world
It seems to me that I'm definitely
Hearing the best that I've heard

So throw me a rope
To hold me in place
Show me a clock
For counting my days down
'Cause everything's easier when you're beside me
Come back and find me 'cause I feel alone

And whenever you go it's like holding my breath under water
I have to admit that I kind of like it when I do
Oh, but I've got to be unconditionally
Unafraid of my days without you

So throw me a rope
To hold me in place
Show me a clock
For counting my days down
'Cause everything's easier when you're beside me
Come back and find me

Whenever I'm falling you're always behind me
Come back and find me

Everything's easier when you're beside me
Come back and find me
'Cause I feel alone
