

Kurt Vile, Another Good Year For The Roses

They said it's been a good year for the roses already
So these days I keep it steady on the regular already
By the way
Everybody knows that was the greatest country song
Sung by a man possessed like the devil, like myself now, so
Sing with the man
Hmm, hmm, alright

He said it's been a good year for the roses already
Some others said "rock steady" but I'm not tryin' to hear that these days
These days I, man, these days I do whatever I want
Tone out the rest till somethin' wakes me from a rest
Tone out the rest till somethin' arresting awaits me
Tone it out, man
Tone it out

They said it's been a good year for the whatever already
And I'm not one quite ready to put it better in a letter
Which reminds me, one day I'll sit down and write me a letter
Get my shit together, yeah
Get my shit together

They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
They said it's been a good year for the roses already
