

Kutless, Again

Awakened from a dream again to a sunrise of your own
How could I expect any more from the one who is so pure
Yet u gave up your life and your still giving more This must inply that,
Love again,again,again
I don't deserve this love you gave
Love again,again,again
I don't deserve this love u gave to me
A fountain flows with gifts from u
That I do nonthing for
You cover me with your love though I nailed u to a cross
I don't understand but I thank u the same
This must imply that
Love again,again,again
I don't deserve this love you gave
Love again,again,again
I don't deserve this love u gave to me
