

Kyle Riabko, Paranoid

It takes me an hour
To finish a shower
My mornings are long
I know, it's freaky baby

And when I am speaking
My stomach is leaping
I'm scared of myself
You probably think I'm crazy

Frantic
Shifty eyes
Worried mind
It's a problem

I'm paranoid
Paranoid
My life is a twister
So bear with me sister
I'm paranoid

I keep myself busy
But my mind is so dizzy
I feel like the world is counting on me baby

Must be in regression
You think I'd learn my lesson
But more manic depression
