

Kyle Spaulding, Crystal

I took you, inside my life
And every night we danced along the riverside
It brought such a thrill
You and, dancing and dancing...

I want to dance...
Like we did in those days
Make the world anew
A stage for you...
And me.

It all went downhill from there
All the dancing, moving...
You got scared.
And you ran, ran away
Farther than all yesterdays
Nothing is here anymore
I've fallen in, fallen in!

I want to dance...
Like we did in those days
Make the world anew
A stage for you...
And me.(X2)

Oh, now I am old
And I haven't told
You anything...
