

Kylie & Pet Shop Boys, In denial

Neil:

In denial

No, my life's a trial

I'm not denying that every little bit hurts

It's a problem, that I'm not solving

Don't mind admitting I feel like quitting this job

For a while, Getting away before it gets any worse 2 day

Kylie:

Your in denial, and that is final

Your not admitting, U should B quitting

All these queens and fairies, and muscle Mary's

The rough trade boyfriend, who in his pathetic own way denies he gay

Why can't he C this is a fantasy world

Neil:

Think I'm going mad

How'd U know if your going mad?

Kylie:

Look at me I'm lonely

Neil:

Look at me I'm sad

I'm not denying, I could B trying, a little harder

2 deal with some of this stuff

Kylie:

Know what I'm thinking, less drugs and drinking

No cigarettes, and you'd feel a little less rough

Neil:

Is that enough? my life is absurd

I'm living it upside down

Like a vampire working at night, Sleeping all day

A dad with a girl who knows he's gay

Both:

Can U love me anyway?
