

La Ley, Rhythm Valentine

The rhythm valentine is a change of way for a chosen year
It falls into my life
Like a drop of rain in a sea of tears
Liberty comes alone in your soul
Love possesses not known when I would be possessed

The rhythm valentine is a souvenir of deep emotions
It's a breeze of tenderness when you feel alone

There is a voice
In which I certainly believe
She doesn't sound with words
It's myself whispering, telling you to realize it
Be alive will fight for your ideas now
Realize it, be alive for it

The rhythm valentines is a souvenir of deep emotions
It's a breeze of tenderness when you feel alone
