

La Roux, Let Me Down Gently

Let me down gently
That's what I think I need
But when you let me down gently
It still feels it hard, hard
Turn me into someone good
That's what I really need
Tell me that I'm someone good
So we're not so far apart, apart
I hope it doesn't seem like I'm young and foolish and mean
Let me in for a minute
You love my life but I want you in it

Set me up I'm solely
That's what you do to me
Oh you set me up slowly
Now I can't come down, down
Let me down gently
That's what I think you need
But when I let you down gently
And you try to hide your frowns, frowns
I hope it doesn't seem like I'm young and foolish and creep
Let me in for a minute
You love my life but I want you in it

And I hope it seeking in
Let behind your perfect skin
There's a part of your that's free
And I know there's a place for me

Let me down gently
That's what I think I need
But when you let me down gently
It still feels it hard, hard
Turn me into someone good
That's what I really need
Tel me that I'm someone good
So we're not so far apart, apart

I hope it doesn't seem like I'm young and foolish and mean
Let me in for a minute
You love my life but I want you in it

And I hope it seeking in
Let behind your perfect skin
There's a part of your that's free
And I know there's a place for me
