

Labrinth, Kill For Your Love

Ooh-ooh

Ooh

Ooh-ooh

Nine millimetres strapped with that heat (woo!)

Vampires, slayers, stake's on me (woo)

Bow and arrow, call me chief Cherokee (ooh-ooh)

I'll go animal to keep you next to me (aah)

When you lay me down in (hey), in some supernatural way

And you take my body (hey) to the Himalayan Sea

Purify me (woo), resurrect me from the grave

Baby, darlin' (hey), I'll do anything you say

I'll, I'll kill, I'll kill for a little drop of your good love

I'll rob and steal stars to keep it lit up in your world

The alphabet need only U and S, 'cause all we'll ever need is us

I'll kill, I'll kill for a little drop of your good love

Baby, open the door for me

Tell me just what I did to make you go so quiet

Who's he? Who is he? Must be someone else tonight

Believe me, I won't be goin' nowhere without a fight, oh-oh-oh

When you lay me down in (yeah), in some supernatural way (way)

When you take my body (yeah-yeah) to the Himalayan Sea

Sugar, honey (woo), I'll do anything you say

I'll, I'll kill, I'll kill for a little drop of your good love

I'll rob and steal stars to keep it lit up in your world

The alphabet need only U and S, 'cause all we'll ever need is us

I'll kill, I'll kill for a little drop of your good love

kill for your love

(Dun, dun-din-dan, di-dan-dan-dan)

(Dun-din-dan, di-dan-dan-dan-dan) kill for your love

(Dun, dun-din-dan, di-dan-dan-dan)

(Dun-din-dan, di-dan-dan-dan-dan) kill for your love

(Dun, dun-din-dan, di-dan-dan-dan)

(Dun-din-dan, di-dan-dan-dan-dan) kill for your love
