

Labyrinth, Slave To The Night

Let me introduce myself, I'm your fear
Do you really know who I am?
I'll be everything you need or dream of I'll slowly take you to the end

So many times I wish I wasn't
Only a shade
But then at sunset I feel something
Burn inside me

Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night

I can hear your hearthbreath while you're sleepin'
Greed takes possession of me
Let me sink my teeth into your young throat
Hey don't turn your back to me now

So many times I wish I wasn't
Only a shade
But then at sunset I feel something
Burn inside me

Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night

It's so hard to live forever alone
There's no rest for me
And no love at all
Always lookin' for somethin' I can't have
In this darkness now I'm becoming mad
'Cause I know this night
I will kill again

Don't you know, so many times I wish I wasn't
Only a shade
But then at sunset I feel something
Burn inside me

Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night

Now in the end I'm still looking
For someone to love
But then at sunset I feel something
Burn inside me

Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night
Slave to the night
