

Lace, I Want A Man

Here we go...

Well I know this guy, we have a real good time.
I let him get a little close but,
Do I like him? Yes! Do I love him? No!
We don't fight and all my friends say we look good together,
But try as I might I just don't see me with him forever.

Chorus:

I don't want a man I can live with,
I want a love that leaves no room for doubt.
I don't want a man I can live with,
I want a man that I can't live without.

Well I know this other guy, the kind that mamma's like,
He wears a money suit!
He wants to marry me, he's got money to boot!
Imagine that, I'd have a life that's easy to get used to.
Matter-a-fact there's a real good reason I don't choose to.

Chorus:

I don't want a man I can live with,
I want a love that leaves no room for doubt.
I don't want a man I can live with,
I want a man that I can't live without.

I can't live without.

I don't want somebody (want somebody), just to have somebody. (just to have somebody)
That's how I am, I'm that kind of girl.
Even if it takes all the time in the world!

I don't want a man I can live with,
I want a love that leaves no room for doubt. (I want a love, I only want a real thing)
I don't want a man I can live with,
I want a man that I can't live without. (That I can't live without)
Umm...yes I do! I want a man that I can't live without.

I want a man...

(I want a man) Well I know this guy, we have a real good time.
(I want a man) Well I know this other guy, he makes me feel real nice.
(I want a man) And theres this guy I like, but do I love him? No!
Cuz I want a man!

I want a man! (fading)
