

Lacey Sturm, Awaken Love

Oh, would you please take me away
I don't want to stay too late
There's vertigo in my soul
At your name
Apprehension in my skin
But the love letters you left
Are like a ribbon lacing through my chest

Would you take
Come and break
Multiply
Open my eyes
Till were standing face to face
Awaken love
Exclusive wine

Love lingers like blood on my tongue
Still honey in my mouth
Fragrant in my song
Spreading out like the dawn
Beauty only you gave to me
A wedding dress you made
I'm yours to hide away
I'm yours
All yours to display

Would you take
Come and break
Multiply
Open my eyes
Till were standing face to face
Awaken love
Exclusive wine

I was searching asking everywhere
Looking for the one I love
That every dream come true is made of
I heard the whisper of your name
Just the mention makes me faint
I fall and land in your embrace
Your fragrance flooding me with life
My racing heart so safe with you
They can't take me away from you
They told me I couldn't find you here
But here you are to prove them wrong
And I will sing your song of all songs
All songs

Come and take
Come and break
Multiply
Open my eyes
To this one flesh
Drinking in
My only love
Exclusive wine
