Lachie Gill, Hate That You Hurt

When a moment is all it takes When the smile on your face is true and fake And I know that these words won't work But I hate that you hurt

I can tell that you're trying to hide Selflessly sad at my happiest time And I know that you were and you weren't But I hate that you hurt

Tell me is this really how you feel Can you really be happy and sad at the same time Waited my whole life to make this real I don't want to be happy and sad at the same time

It was quiet and now it's loud But it's only you who I want around And it's hard that our future's blurred But I hate that it hurts

Tell me is this really how you feel Can you really be happy and sad at the same time Waited my whole life to make this real I don't want to be happy and sad at the same time

Just hold on the line it won't be tonight Baby we'll learn Just give me the time we'll make this right I still hate that you hurt

Tell me is this really how you feel Can you really be happy and sad at the same time Waited my whole life to make this real I don't want to be happy and sad at the same time I don't want to be happy and sad at the same time
