

Lacrimosa, Darkness

my heart - my love
one word - and gone
to stay - i will believe and pray

to see - to feel
to hear - to be and gone how can i get close to you? how can i - the foolish one?

beauty can't be seen but only kissed
i have so much love to give
but where are you and how to be reached?

can i talk - can i speak?
and can i lay my head on you?
can i choose and can i say i love you?

darkness surrounding me
my head hangs low
your arms are far
your breath takes me
besides - i am in love
i'm loving you - but you so far from me - i'm holding out your words - your face - your breath your touch - your heart should cover me but all you do is watching me so i dismiss the grace of you and far beyond the darkness grows which leads me back to all my roots the longing and the pain in darkness and disgrace

but where are you and how to be reached?
