

Lacuna Coil, Cold Heritage

Dont tell me why
i'm so near to commit a crime
When i stay alone here in front of you
I'm here

Illusions falls when youre not honest about the way i feel
I know i need only your voice

Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me

I dont know why
There's a limit to defy
With the vision of the future at my feet
I'm here

The night embrace me while
The picture simply blows me away
I feel I'll need only your voice

And i'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
Believe in the light in me
And i'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
Reveal the light in me

Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me

Dont tell me why
i'm so near to commit a crime
When i stay alone here in fornt of you
I'm here

Illusions falls when youre not honest about the way i feel
I know i need only your voice

And i'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
Believe in the light in me
And i'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
Reveal the light in me

And i'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
I've never, never felt myself this way before
And I want to leave with my tears
If you'll disappear
Reveal the light in me

Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
Falling on me knees only for you
Forgive me
Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
