

Lacuna Coil, Heir Of A Dying Day

He's the one
When you feel the heat
That he makes you feel
As a wonder

He promises you
No more tears to cry
Holds the colors
Into the rainbow

Comes after the rain to please
Your eyes with all the colours that you
Cannot see
He comes to save us
You will see

Standing aside he's the saviour
Of your only human part
You cannot see he came to save us
You will see

Breathing
As a child is born
As a cancer is
Killing my past

I'm wondering
How long I'll resist
Virus into my mind
As a rainbow

Comes after the rain to please
Your eyes with all the colours that you
Cannot see
He comes to save us
You will see

Standing aside he's the saviour
Of your only human part you
Cannot see he came to save us
You will see

Shines on me
This little light on me
Goes on, and on, and on Feed it

(watch the dying day come)
