

Lacuna Coil, Layers Of Time

Layers Of Time

i live the life i left behind a story born of scars and trifles my heart is blind and frozen I'm among snakes
I'm well disguised healers and dealers of this time the poison enters every night well disguised

victims of time
we take our chance again our road is paved with pain
the past we can't rewind

building this life still trapped inside
I think I've lost the storyline forever hurt and broken I swear I'll get out alive burning the bridges built behind my life's reloading every night out alive

victims of time

blaze

twisting turning thought the baptism of fire burning angels falling though the spiral of time thought the layers of time we'll live again

forget the past
we'll be alright

keep walking
we'll find the way
