

Lacuna Coil, Underdog

You are going down
You are going down
You are going down
Down
At the bottom I have found
I cannot wait to get back in the fight
And send you straight to the ground
Hide and seek
When I'm on the ropes
You wanna knock me down, knock me out
Your cheap shots are denied
You're going down
You can't kill my soul and kill me dream
Back down
Now
You will understand me now
You don't want to come back to the fight
I've been the underdog all my life
I can feel it
I will not stop until I see you down
On the ground
Cause I am still alive
