

Lady Antebellum, Pictures

there's a 4-by-6 of a sunset kiss and one of you laughin' at me catching my first fish one on Valentine's Day with the mariachi band at our favorite place we sure looked happy in pictures the camera doesn't show the way it hurt no, that ain't the way I remember it happened in between the flashes it was sad

It was tragic
we sure looked happy in pictures

there's one on my phone that I can't erase but you'd never know by the smile on my face that inside I was dying later that night I'd be crying the last one before goodbye

the camera doesn't show the way it hurt
no, that ain't the way I remember it happened

no photo evidence, not a single proof of all the hell that we went through but damn, looked happy in pictures

the camera doesn't show the way it hurt
no, that ain't the way I remember it happened
we sure looked happy in pictures
