

Lady GaGa, Perfect Illusion

Trying to get control
Pressure's takin' its toll
Stuck in the middle zone
I just want you alone
My guessing game is strong
Way too real to belong
Caught up in your show
Yeah, at least now I know

It wasn't love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion
Perfect illusion
Mistaken for love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion
Perfect illusion
You were a perfect illusion

I don't need eyes to see
I felt you touching me
High like amphetamine
Maybe you're just a dream
That's what it means to crush
Now that I'm waking up
I still feel the blow
But at least now I know

It wasn't love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion
Perfect illusion
Mistaken for love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion
Perfect illusion
You were a perfect illusion

It was a perfect illusion
It was a perfect illusion
Perfect illusion
Mistaken for love
It wasn't love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion
Perfect illusion
Mistaken for love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion
Perfect illusion
You were a perfect illusion
You were a perfect illusion
It was a perfect illusion
Somewhere in all the confusion
It was a perfect illusion, illusion, illusion

It was perfect illusion
Somewhere in all the confusion
You were so perfect
In a modern ecstasy
