

Ladytron, Another Breakfast With You

I don't want to fight just want a piece of your life oh, if you come out to play
I don't want you to say...anything I didn't feel a thing when you told me that you didn't feel a thing when I told you that I didn't feel a thing, another breakfast with you [repeat]
(spoken)
Did you ever fall in love?
for a quarter of an hour or above (??)
