

Lagoona, Final Destination

I'm flying high, like an eagle in the sky,
over hills and mountains high.
I'll cross the world, I'll see it from above.
I'll come to you, wherever you may be...
You're my final destination.

I'll find my way, through the night and day,
I will come to you and stay.
You're my dream, you know that it is true:
I'll be with you, wherever you may be.
You're my final destination.
