

Lagwagon, Change Despair

Everything that I've done here into one in keeping with...
Some earned conviction, some stagnation, some change despair dissapointed and odds in a costume you can't take off Leave it behind. I know that this time I get in for free

Our latest rendition lame Reincarnate, return the same
Still the best times are here now.
Now that I'm bored, now that I'm numb Done, I know this is wrong
Safe in that stance but incomplete
I leave it behind. I know that this time I get out for free

Some of it's habitual some of it's predictable
Sometimes the change is not enough
And in the lost empathy memories of better days
