

Laika, Almost Sleeping

I'm not talking anymore
All the skins of the words
Fell off in my hands
If I told you and showed you
You'd laugh

I'm not trying anymore
All my good intentions
Fell out of my hands
If I told you and showed you
You'd laugh

You're always right when I'm lonely
I can fake it so long only
Lose track of days
Whiling away
I don't have strength to get away
Lose track of days
Whiling away
I don't have strength
To get away

I thought it
Would be so easy
That I didn't need to worry
I'm safe inside your hands
Why'd I listen why'd I fall for that

You're always right when I'm lonely
I can take it so long only
You're always right when I'm lonely
I can take it so long only

I'm not talking anymore
All the skins of the words
Fell off in my hands
If I told you and showed you
You'd laugh

I'll stay all night when I'm lonely
I can fake it so long only
You're always right when I'm lonely
I can take it so long only

Lose track of days
Whiling away
I don't have strength
To get away

Lose track of days
Whiling away
I don't have strength
To get away
